The admission to the BUND BILDENDER KÜNSTLER LEIPZIG e.V.

Admission of new members is decided by the board. Admission for ordinary membership is based on the following criteria adhere to the admission criteria of the Bundesverband Bildender Künstlerinnen und Künstler

a) Applications are open to anyone who has attained a University degree in the subject of fine arts at a German art college or a comparable foreign institution;

b) Anyone can be admitted who has a professional exhibition and publication activity or can prove a qualified artistic practice

c) Admission may be granted to anyone who has been elected by a committee of the BBK responsible for admission in accordance with the requirements under a) and b) has been included in the criteria described above.

We ask those artists who have completed a university degree (criterion a) to submit a CV, their Final certificate and a representative selection of their work (catalogues, portfolio, photos etc.) at the BBK LEIPZIG e.V. The applicant will then be informed whether the application has been successful.

The board decides on the admission of artists who do not have a university degree in a four-monthly rotation. We ask applicants to provide a CV and submit a representative selection of original works. The decision on admission will be made after the board meeting. We can not provide any information on reasons for admission/rejection.

Please submit

- a portfolio / folder / binder containing following: artistic vita with exhibition activities, projects, references
- a short statement about your own work + why to become a member
- evidence of training, catalogue, if available or photos (printouts)
- Picture material (at least 10 photos, not smaller than 10 x 15 cm)
